Re: Program Closures due to COVID-19

Good Day Health Care Aides' of WISH Homes,

We have learned that starting today most of the mental health programs are closed, including City of Edmonton Recreation Centres and facilities until further notice. Due to this many of our clients will be remaining home. I have created the following booklet of ideas for our clients to do at home as well as possible printing pages for colouring and/ or word searches etc.

Please contact me for further ideas of activities to do in the home if you find clients are getting restless due to scheduling changes and/ or program cancellations.

Sincerely,

Vanya Skipper, B.A.
Recreation Therapist

50 Things to do at Home

1. Movie Marathon

Make some popcorn, and get watching.

2. Arts & Crafts

Turn back the clock to your primary school days and get the arts and crafts kit out of the cupboard. Here's a list of cool grown-up tutorials so you are not throwing yourself into your childhood days too much.

3. Costume Party

One of the most fun things to do at home with friends is to get dressed up. Pick a theme - from the roaring 20s to superheroes - and get everyone psyched enough to make the effort by offering a funny prize. Lay on some snacks, drinks, and music in-keeping with the theme and get ready to mingle.

4. Host a Cooking Show

Turn your kitchen into the set of your favourite cooking program, complete with judging and themed rounds. Not only will this add a bit of a spin on the dinner party concept, it also encourages the participants to get creative and try out new ideas. Even if most of the food ends up being inedible, the whole experience will fill up an evening.

5. Afternoon Tea

Nod to the British elite with an afternoon tea. Pick up some French fancies and scones with clotted cream, and pour yourselves a cup of Earl Grey. Make sure to use your finest china and set the scene with a vintage platter to lay it all out on. Champagne is completely necessary to round it all off.

6. Spa Night

Face masks, nails, hair oh my! Look good, feel good!

7. Charades

This one's a classic. You'll be warding off the giggles while trying to guess which niche film your friend is trying desperately to gesticulate within a 60-second time limit. Sometimes the simplest fun is the best.

8. Karaoke

9. Indoor Picnic

Lay your prettiest blankets over your living room floor and set out sandwiches and other cold snacks. Summery treats like strawberries and champagne and mimosas with fresh juice will add to the atmosphere.

10. Bake Off

Have a fake bake sale. Get together to whip up some lovely cakes to share or ask everyone to bring one over. Add a competitive element by asking everyone to judge each cake out of 10.

11. Treasure Hunt

Prepare your clues and hide them around the house. Each one should lead to the next, and the final should bring the winner to a special prize. There's no need to complicate things: make it a bottle of wine or something just as simple.

12. Host an International Dinner Night

As a house, pick out a country you would like to learn more about and are interested in. Find cuisine that is unique to that country. Prepare a dinner that would be served in that country.

13. "Newscast"

Set up and make a newscast of events that are going on locally or events that are taking place in your family circle. This will also help everyone learn to speak in public. Doing this at home is an unusual way to interact as a family.

14. Plant Seedlings

Planting seedlings and watching their growth is rewarding, as well as educational. You would need to do a bit of research as to what would be the best time to plant. The time frame fluctuates between various types of plants. Most plants take 3-15 weeks to mature to a level to be transplanted into a garden. You would want to know what type of plants you are planting and the time needed. It brings great joy to watch them develop and bloom once they are transplanted into a garden.

15. Play Games

Board games are an excellent way to have fun at home. There are so many options to choose from. Some of our favorites include Ticket to Ride, Catan, Sequence, and Risk. These are just a few of the many varieties out there. Go to a local game store and see what appeals to the taste of your family.. The great thing about board games is that you are able to interact with everyone while playing. Let the games begin!

16. Do a Puzzle

Puzzle-making is a calming way to spend time together at home. Hours can be spent finding just the right pieces to add to the puzzle. The best part is when you see the finished product. This isn't a one-night activity, so set aside a place that the puzzle can be undisturbed. You can find mats that roll your puzzle up when you aren't working on it. If you have a spare table that isn't used daily, you could have it there on display and readily available to continue on.

17. Make Jewelry

Learning to make jewelry isn't that difficult. You can find many links on the internet that will teach you how to make earrings and necklaces.

18. Read a Book

The art of reading aloud has lost its popularity. Pick out a book that would interest your roommates and have an evening each week that you read the story aloud. Take turns reading out loud. Interact about what is going on in the story line. This can be your own house book club.

19. Listen to your Favorite Music

Music is one of the most important things to do with roommates. Just get grooving to some soulful music and hum along with your favorite singer. Your time together with roommates will fly and you will end up having some wonderful memories of the day.

20. Dance with your Roommates

Dancing with people can be a lot of fun. Just put on your favorite number and set the floor on fire! You can spend hours together dancing with your roommates. Copy each other's moves and teach them some of yours, your dancing session will surely be awesome.

21. Try your Hands at Something Creative

It will be a good idea to try your hands at something creative. How about making your own handmade cards for the upcoming mother's day or teacher's day?

22. Play Card Games

Card games are very challenging and exciting games that can be played in a big group of roommates. Your roommates will not get bored with cards and it is an entertainment activity that does not require a lot of pre-planning.

23. A Walk in the Neighborhood

You can take your roommates along for a short or long walk in your neighborhood area.

24. Painting with your Roommates

Get creative with your roommates and spend some time painting. You can all try your skills at painting a large portrait or landscape or you can all paint individually.

25. Write your own poems or songs

Get creative and try your skills at poetry or songwriting. This activity is best done with friends and better still when you have your friends over for a night stay.

26. Riddles

Challenge your friends to a round of tough riddles. This is a great mental exercise and you will keep your friends occupied and entertained.

27. Put Together a Puzzle

Find a complex, 1000-piece puzzle and put the power of teamwork to the test. Puzzles are a great way to spend some quality time together and learn to cooperate.

28. Decorate/ organize your room

Room decor is something you can do for hours and hours without getting bored.

29. Journal

Start a journal. It could also be about a specific interest from chess to cheese.

30. Write poetry.

Perhaps you can craft a haiku for Mother's Day, or something without a specific structure. Just try it!

31. Learn a Language

Use a book or ask a roommate or staff to teach you words in another language!

32. Meditate

Try lying down with your eyes closed, palms up and while focusing on your breath. Or spend 20 minutes sitting crosslegged and repeat a soothing word to yourself in your head. (The latter is more like transcendental meditation.)

33. Look at Pictures

Look at pictures with your roommates and reminisce about the day the picture was taken!

34. Write actual letters to family and friends.

35. Put on a soap opera.

Mute the sound. Create your own dialogue.

36. Organize

Try on all your clothes and determine whether they “spark joy”. Better yet, go through this process with your junk drawer and supply shelves.

37. Knit or crochet.

38. Phone your friends/ family

39. Do In-Home Exercise with your roommates

Walk, dance or do seated exercise in your home with your roommates!

41. Colouring books: They're not just for kids.

42. Take time to reflect

What have you accomplished in the last year? What goals are you setting for yourself in the next year?

43. Write a short story or get started on that novel.

44. Work on your Budget

How do you plan to save money this year? How much do you want to spend each month?

45. Learn origami

Make cranes for your loved ones.

46. Stretch

Work on your flexibility. It's possible to get the splits back, right?

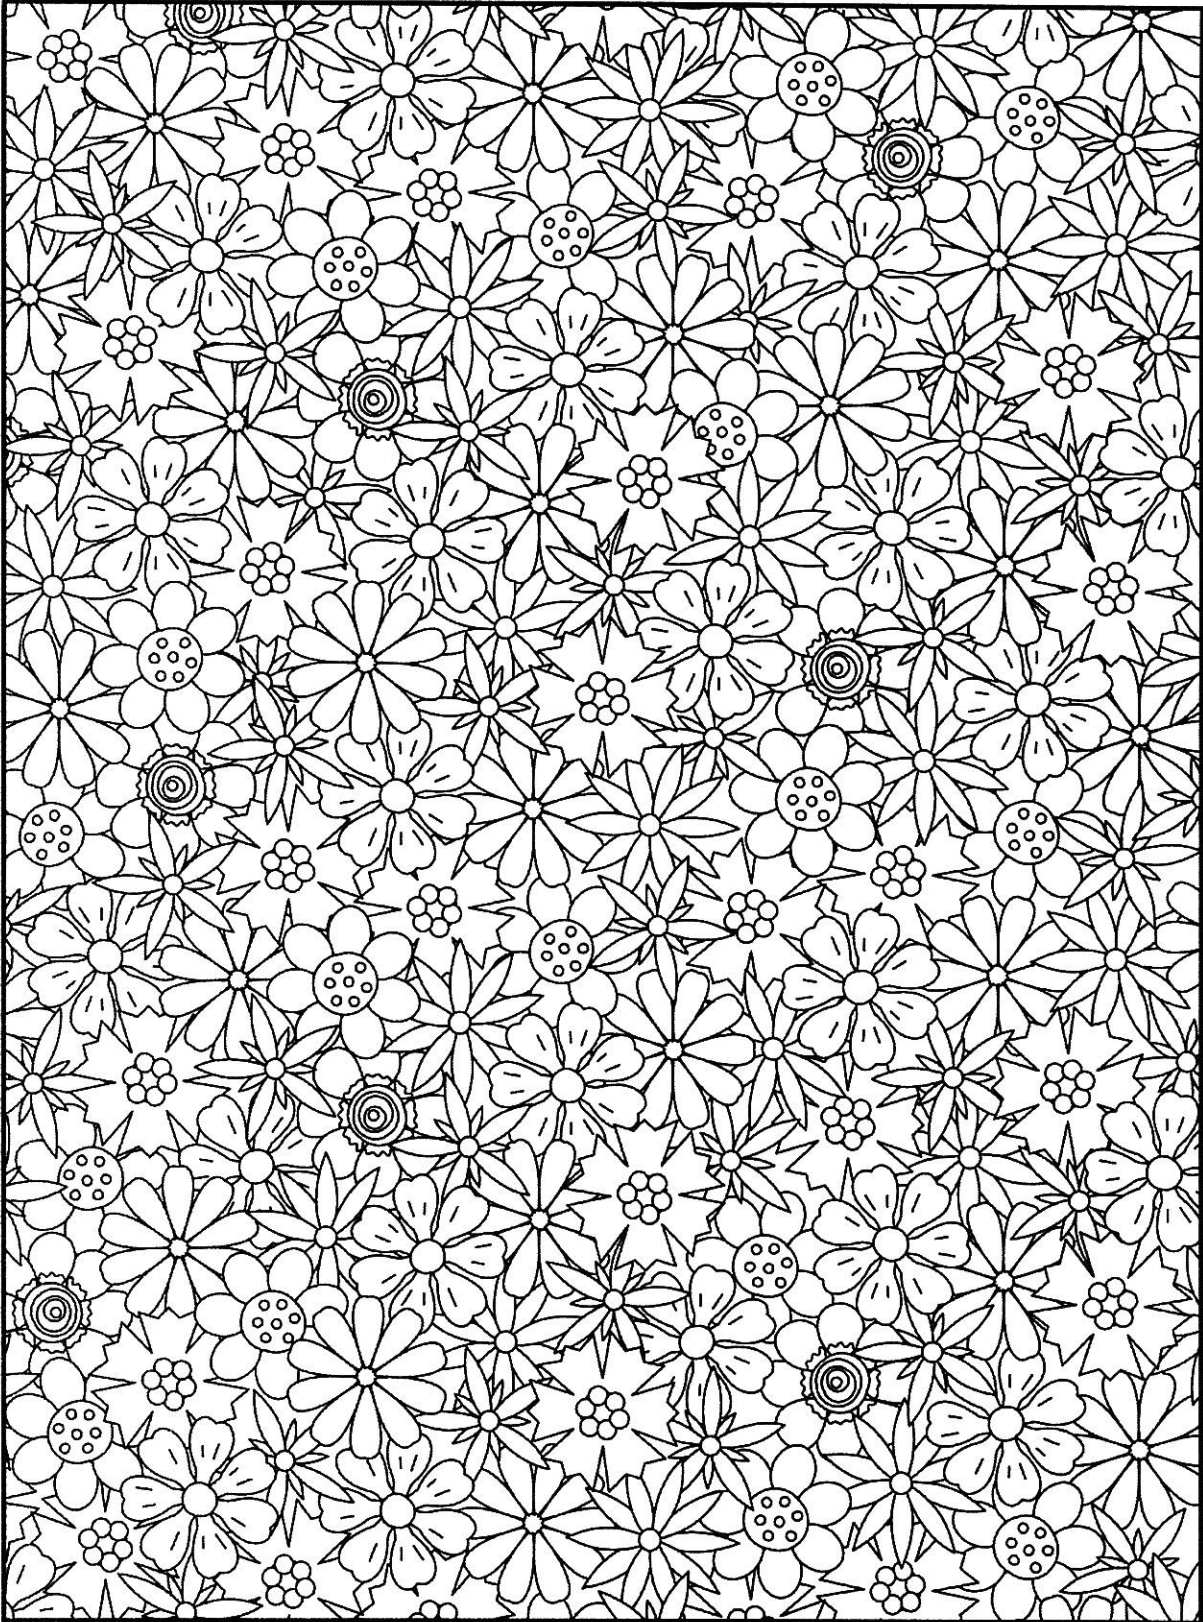

47. Take deep breaths

In through your nose and out through your mouth.

48. Make homemade Playdough

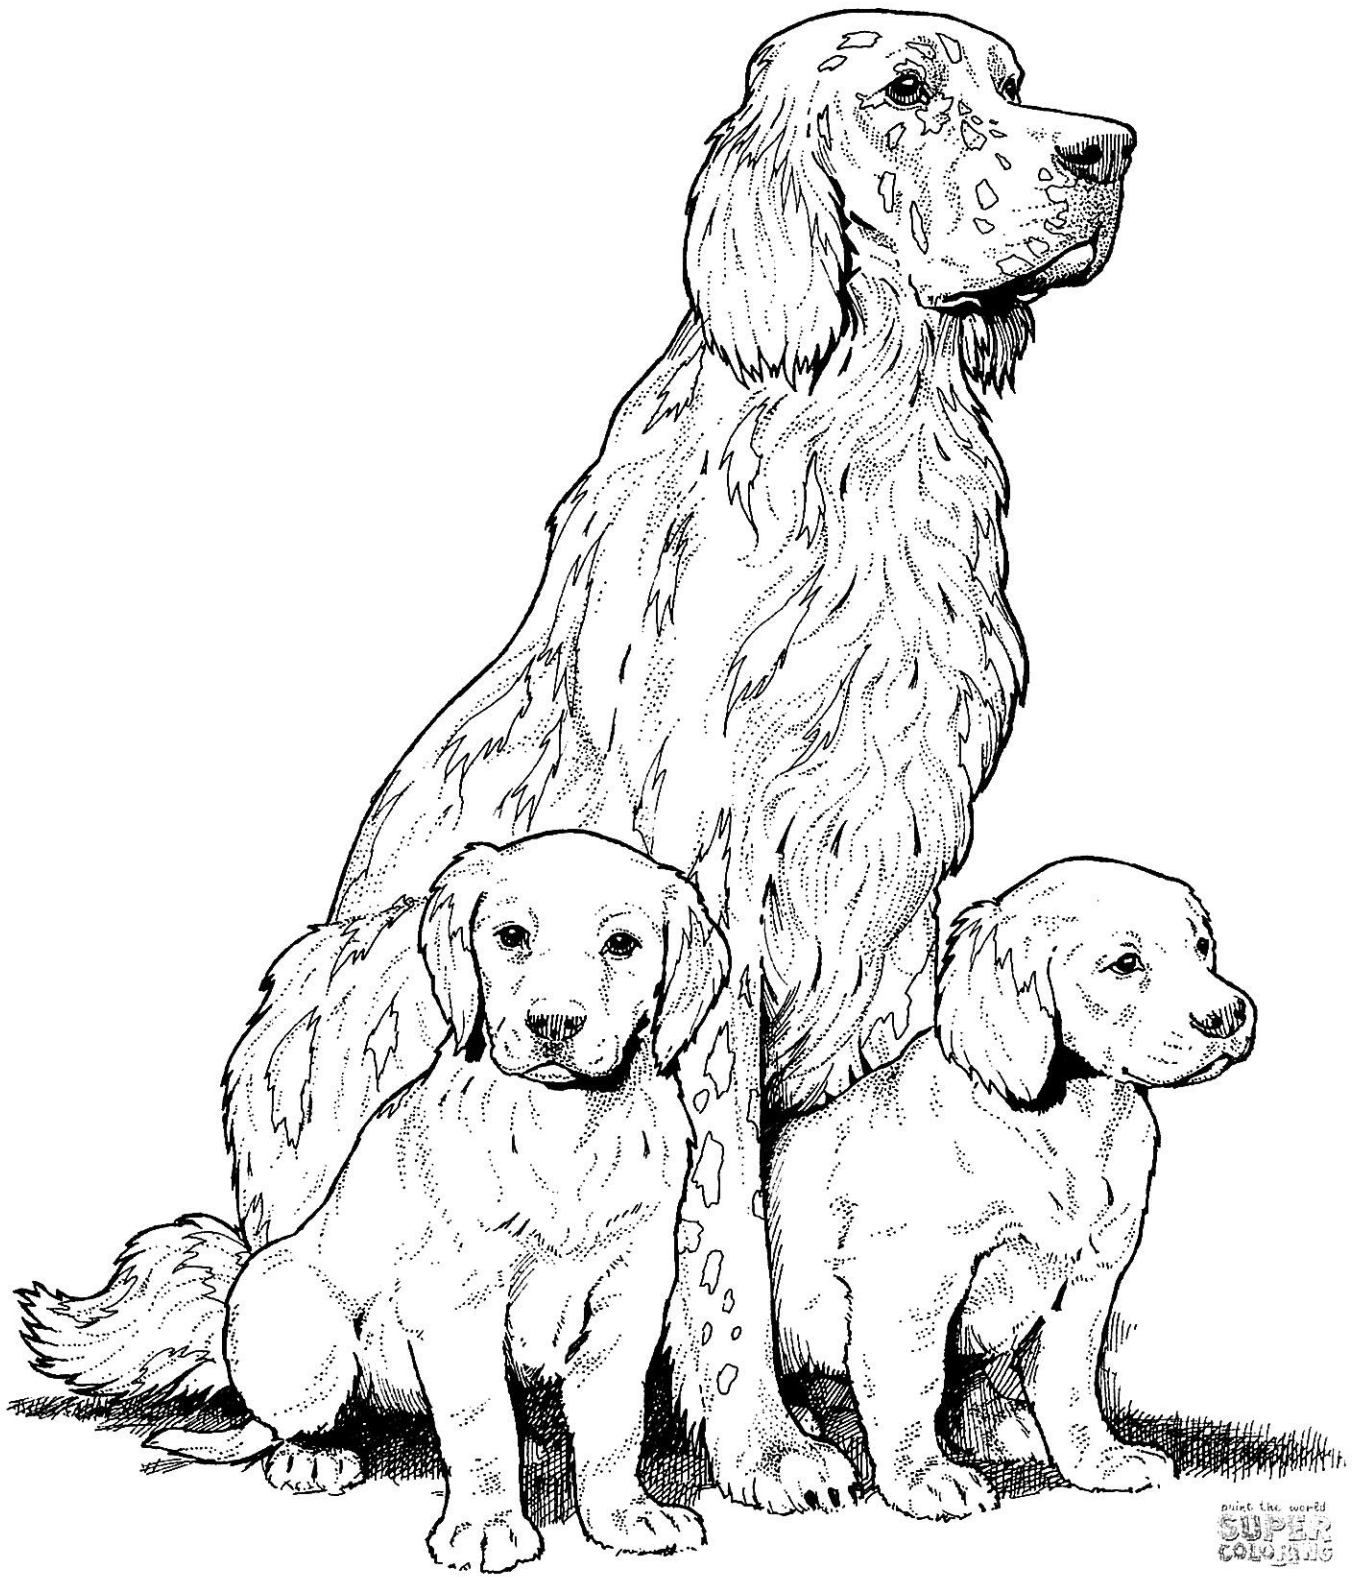

49. Make your own Lavalamp

50. Learn new things about your roommates, ask them questions!
